Feed Truck Turns Over

A load of grain was dumped into the intersection of US 77 and Lamar St. about 5:15 p. m. Tuesday when a huge grain truck overturned.

And police reported two other accidents during the week.

Acting Police Chief Bill Richter said that the grain truck, driven by Marion McSain, of Abilene, collided with a four-wheel trailer hooked onto the rear of a 1949 Ford driven by Walter June, Rt. 1, Cameron.

Neither driver was injured. Mrs. June, riding with her husband, also escaped injury.

Richter said June was attempting a right turn onto Lamar from US 77 (E. Fourth St.) when the collision occurred.

Tons of grain spilled onto the intersection, blocking traffic in the south-bound traffic lane. The truck crashed onto its side.

McSain's vehicle, a 1958 Chevrolet, struck the June trailer throwing the truck cab on top of the trailer.

The truck was traveling south behind June as he was making the turn onto Lamar.

Acting Chief Richter also reported that cars driven by Lillian Crouch South, 45, Fort Worth, and G. G. Ainsworth, 55, of 1803 N. Jackson, collided about 5:35 p. m. Sunday at the intersection of Sixth and Travis Sts.

The Fort Worth woman, driving a 1959 Studebaker north on Travis, collided with the 1951 Chevrolet pickup driven by Ainsworth, who was driving east on Sixth.

No injuries occurred. Richter said Ainsworth was ticketed for failure to yield right of way.

In another two-car collision, vehicles driven by Otto W. Wied, 62, of 1310 E. 16th St., and Mrs. Elbina Applin, 1501 N. Jackson, collided about 5:30 p. m. September 1 at the intersection of East 12th St. and N. Jackson.

Wied's 1953 Chevrolet was damaged to the extent of $75 and damage to Mrs. Applin's 1953 Oldsmobile was estimated at about $400. Richter said Wied was ticketed for failure to yield right-of-way and Mrs. Applin was ticketed for exceeding a safe speed, he noted.

Neither driver was injured.

Workmen Begin Construction On New Bank Project

Workmen of the Chandler Construction Co. Monday began work on the site of the Citizens National Bank drive-in facilities on the corner of Travis and Main.

And workmen were continuing interior work on the new McIntosh Dept. Store building on North Houston. Also nearing completion was the new pressbox at Yoe Field.

Citizens National Bank officials said that construction on the drive-in facilities was scheduled for completion about November 1. And plans to expand bank offices into the present McIntosh building would be set in motion when the department store moved to its new location.

Meanwhile, White's Auto Store held a grand opening over the weekend at a new location at 120 N. Houston.

Officials of Newton Memorial Hospital said that construction was due to begin soon on the new 28-bed hospital on a site north of the present structure on W. Fourth St.

The city Tuesday announced plans to pave about six more blocks on W. Main St., replacing present paving from the Southern Pacific tracks to Orchard St.

Two Cameronites Recovering From Accident Injuries

Mrs. Anita Knipp Schofield, Cameron, and Griffin Barrett, also of Cameron, are recovering from injuries suffered in a collision August 31 on SH 36 at the West Cameron city limits.

Mrs. Schofield's 1957 Ford collided with a trailer being towed by Earnest Kinchick, 20, of Route 2, Cameron, at the intersection of SH 36 and the Marak - Yarellon farm - to - market road. Kinchick escaped injury.

Both Mrs. Schofield and Barrett are recovering in St. Edward's Hospital where they were taken for treatment. She suffered multiple contusions and chest injuries. Barrett suffered a brain concussion and face cuts.

Sheriff Carl Black said that Kinchick was crossing the state highway while Mrs. Schofield was driving east to Cameron.

Barrett was a passenger in the Schofield vehicle.

Echols Recouping From Amputation

Ed Echols, who lost his right arm, in a hay baler August 23, was flown to a Galveston hospital Sunday for plastic surgery.

The 50-year-old Sharp man was found about 8:30 that night by his wife and son about an hour and a half after his arm had been cut off in a baling machine on the Evans and Wortham farm near Sharp. He had been repairing the machine.

He was taken by ambulance plane to Galveston for admission at John Sealy Hospital where special surgery is planned. He was accompanied by Dr. E. O. Smith of Cameron.

Officials at St. Edward's Hospital said that Echols was in good condition considering extent of injury and his age.

Belt burns that saved Echols' life by stopping excessive bleeding required further amputation of the shoulder blade and collar bone, officials said.

While working alone on the machine, Echols caught his arm in the baler press. After being severed, the arm went through the press and came out in a bale of hay.

Belt on the machine everly burned the wound, but saved Echols' life by staunching the flow of blood.

Mrs. Echols and her son began

Mexican, 20, Found Drowned In Cistern On Foshea Farm

A 20-year-old Mexican, termed mentally retarded by court officials, was found drowned in a cistern by members of his family on the Jerald Foshea farm north-west of Burlington.

County Sheriff Carl Black said the youth was found at the bottom of the well Tuesday, clothed only in blue jeans.

He said that Ruben Rodriguez had been missing since about 4 p. m. Sunday. Members of his family, migrant workers from McAllen, looked for him that afternoon and Monday before calling Black's office.

The Foshea farm is near the Fallas County line.

Sheriff Black said that the boy's family had not yet decided on funeral arrangements.

Greece and Italy ... Report VI

Writer Sees Ancient Rome, Athens

A. W. McGregor, now in Cameron, concludes his report on a six-week trip to Europe and the Middle East with this story on Greece and Italy, cradles of Western civilization. — Ed.

By A. W. McGregor
I left Israel from an airport near the city of Tel Aviv. My destination was Athens, Greece. I was well impressed even before arriving because of the luxurious Olympia airliner in which I flew. It was a sample of the warm welcome awaiting us at the Athens airport, crossroads of the Mediterranean East.

Greece, with a population of 7,602,000 in an area smaller than Florida, is the "cradle of civilization and birthplace of the gods." It is the "land of legend and beauty which has inspired centuries of art and essence of philosophy."

My first day in Greece was spent visiting the ancient city of Corinth, the locale of Paul's sermons and epistles to the Corinthians. Here I found the remains of ancient Greek, Roman and Byzantine periods.

A full day was spent at the fabulous Parthenon, standing like a crown on the rocky hill of the Acropolis, dominant height of the city. This building, constructed of Pentelic marble, was begun in 477 B. C. Forming the outer frame of the building are 46 Doric columns, Fountain, which attracts an end-based on a platform 228 feet long by 100 feet wide. This structure is considered the most perfect example of ancient art in the world. The Parthenon was converted into a Christian Church in the 5th Century A. D. and later into a mosque. When the Turks were besieged in the Acropolis by the Venetians, a bomb ignited powder in the sanctuary and the Parthenon, pride of Athens, fell into ruins.

It was a unique experience to stand on Mars Hill and read from Acts 17 the sermon which Paul preached almost 2000 years ago on this same spot, over looking this same city!

From Greece I flew to Rome, "The Eternal City." This city, the capitol of Italy, was bustling with frantic, last minute preparations for the Olympic Games. In Rome, I visited the Burghese Gallery (the former home of Napoleon's sister), St. Peter's Basilica alongside the Vatican, the Roman Forum, and St. Paul's Outside - the - Walls.

Of course, one of the most impressive sights was the Colosseum. It was started by the Emperor Vespasian and finished by his son, Titus, in 80 A. D. It was originally used for gladiatorial combats but on occasions, Christians were sacrificed there.

I enjoyed my visit to the Trevi Fountain which attracts an endless procession of the curious, most of whom toss a coin in the water. The legend is that a coin tossed in the fountain insures your return to Rome. The fountain was an important accessory in a motion picture called "Three Coins in a Fountain."

Vatican City, a sovereign state within the limits of Rome, is of immense interest to tourist. It was created in 1929 by a treaty between the Holy See and the Italian government, which resorted to territorial sovereignty to the Pope. Surely, one of the high points of my trip was the opportunity of attending a public audience with Pope John, XXIII. He was at his summer home, Villa Pontificia di Castel Gandolfo, some 25 kilometers from Rome.

In a special chapel, built by Pope Pius XII for such occasions, about 2000 of us stood over an hour awaiting the Pope's entrance. He was carried in a throne on the shoulders of eight men to the beautiful red velvet, gold-enlaid throne at the front of the chapel. Here he addressed the group in Italian and French and later a translation was given in English. His entrance and exit was accompanied by the shouts and cries of faithful Catholics, "Viva La Papa, Viva La Papa" (long live the Pope).

From Rome I went by train to Naples. From here I took a half-day excursion, driving along the Autostrada to Pompeii to visit the old and new excavations of

Telephone TV Bell Story Told

Jim Youngblood, district technical manager for Southwest Bell Telephone Co., Austin Wednesday described the workings of the Bell System in a talk before Cameron Rotarians.

He was introduced by Lloyd Gropper, wire chief for SW Bell in Cameron.

Youngblood described technical advances coming in the telephone industry in his talk on the major problems of the Bell System: technical, financial and personnel.

He pointed out that Bell Telephone, owned by American Telephone and Telegraph, spends $2 billion annually on new installations. He cited the recent $323,000 investment made by SW Bell in Cameron in converting this city to dial.

He said such things as wrist radios, like the type made famous by the Dick Tracy comic strip, have been produced. And telephones with television screens have been produced.

Youngblood noted that Ray O'Connell, former wire chief in Cameron, is now in New York working on Project Mercury with Bell Telephone scientists. The government-sponsored project is developing systems of communications making television transmission or telephone communication possible through use of satellites.

In discussing financial problems of the Bell System, Youngblood said that Bell is the largest private corporation in the nation and second only to the federal government in size in operations needing "equity capital." He added that the Bell System is investing about 5 percent on an netting of $22 billions.

"A third problem," he said, "is finding and training the personnel to manage these financial problems."

Bell employs more than 700,000 people in its nationwide operation, he said.

Tittsworth Plans New CD Class

Registrations are now being taken by C. Tittsworth, Cameron School Civil Defense co-ordinator, for a 12 hour course in disaster survival.

"Experienced disaster workers contend," said Tittsworth, "that in times of stress, often as many as half the casualties are needless. They are caused by people who do foolish, illogical things or who don't know what to do."

The public can learn about personal and family preparedness for survival during and after emergencies by attending free civil defense classes at Voc. Ag. Bldg. in Cameron.

The course will cover basic, common-sense measures to be taken for natural and man-made calamities. It has been described as a course for "people who want to live to a ripe old age regardless of what happens."

Classes will begin Tuesday, September 13 at 7 p. m. Remaining three class sessions will be held at the Voc. Ag. Bldg.

Persons wishing to enroll should contact Tittsworth at Yoe High School, OX 7-3541 or home phone OX 7-2835.

Tittsworth stressed that neighboring towns and counties have city and county Civil Defense Organizations and Milam County needs to organize also.

A class will also begin Monday September 12 at 7 p. m. at the Milam High School. All interested persons in that area are urged to attend the meeting.

Public Hearing Set For Budget Review Sept. 20

The City Council Tuesday approved a single-coat paving job for West Main St. and purchased a 1960 police car.

In a short hour-long meeting, the Council also set a public hearing for the budget for the regular Council meeting 5 p. m. September 20 at City Hall.

Councilmen voted approval for repaving a 22-foot width of W. Main St. from the Southern Pacific tracks west to Orchard St., following a report on construction plans from City Public Works Supt. J. B. Earle.

Earle estimated the cost of the project would be $1,026.40. Approval of the project followed appearance of a delegation of residents along Main St. three weeks ago who sought paving from Crockett to Orchard.

But city officials said that drainage problems along Main St. from Crockett to the SP tracks would have to be cleared before paving could be completed there.

The council approved a low bid of $796.50 plus trade - in for the new police unit. Low bid was submitted by Hefley - Stedman Motor Co.

A second bid by Earl Pearson Chevrolet was for $799.88 with trade-in. No other bids were received in time, officials said.

In other action the Council heard a report on operation of the Municipal Swimming Pool which showed a 50 percent increase in gross receipts during the summer. It was closed following the Labor Day Weekend. Total income on the pool was $1,841.25. It was operated by Ray Green and Make McDermott, Jr., college students from Cameron.

Mayor Coleman Duncum urged the Council to approve a policy of not using city equipment for hire in cleaning lots and private property.

Councilmen approved a resolution to stop use of city equipment except the mower for hired work on private property.

Duncum said the policy would end countless explanations to inquiries from citizens wondering if city equipment is being used gratis to do off-city work.

The W. Main St. project will include a double-coat job on parking lanes between the traffic lanes and curbing or street shoulders.

County Agents Notes

Prices Vary For Good Bulls

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

According to Tom Prater, Farm Management Specialist at A & M College, you pay up to $976 for a beef herd bull that will increase your weaning weight by 15 lbs., assuming 24 cents calf prices. The figure would rise to $1,108 with 30 cent calves. At 21 cents, you can pay $910. These calculations assume that you would pay $450 for a bull for the same quality as your present herd, a bull that would neither increase nor decrease weaning weights of calves.

Putting it another way, one bull is worth $658 more than another if his calves are 15 lbs heavier, based on 30 cent calf prices. At 24 cents, it is an added $527 and at 21 cents, he is worth an additional $460.

The computations are based on genetic expectations and the actual determination of present values of future production. It is assumed that 25 offspring will be sold each year by the selected sire, and that 5 offspring are sold annually for 5 years from the daughters. The daughter's offspring average weaning weight is increased 17 1/2 lbs. The selected herd sire is kept in production three years. His daughters are assumed to go in production at age 3 and be in production five years. Both of these will vary, but maximum production could generally be expected under this type assumption for managing the herd replacements.

The average live weight which has been sold of the original sire's offspring is 380 lbs., based on a recent study of cow - calf operations. This can be increased by selecting a sire which had a heavier live - weight base at the same age of the original sire's offspring. This selected sire's index is based on his weaning weight which was 480 lbs.

In order to get the increased weight that the offspring of the selected sire will weigh, Dr. Tom C. Carwright, Professor of Animal Breeding, Texas A & M College says, "Subtract 380 from 480. This gives a 100 - lb. increase base for the selected sire."

Stored Grains May Require Fumigation - Grains cannot be stored and then forgotten. Insects such as the rice weevil and Angoumois grain moth may infest the grain in the field, and infested grain may be brought into storage. Fumigation is the best protection against insect damage to stored grain.

Several fumigants are effective for killing stored grain insects. They are formulated as various combinations, and are sold by companies under different trade names.

When applying liquid fumigants, the storer should be careful to spray the entire surface of the grain. Fumigant application may be accomplished with hand pump sprayer for small quantities of grain or with some form of power operated sprayer for large amounts. The bin should be closed after the fumigant is applied and it should not be opened for at least 24 hours - preferable 4 or 5 days. As a safety precaution, at least two men should be present with the fumigants are being applied.

Fumigation recommendations are available at the county agents office.

Armyworms Are Found In Texas

COLLEGE STATION — A small destroyer is again making himself felt in Texas. Reports from many areas of the state indicate that armyworms are attacking grasses and forage crops. In some cases there may be more than one kind of armyworm involved. The three species involved are fall armyworms, true armyworms and beet armyworms, but C. F. Garner, extension entomologist, says that it is rather difficult to make field determinations between the species. Fall armyworms, however, are the major species attacking grass crops.

The larvae do not become conspicuous until they are nearly grown. Young larvae feed near the ground at first and are not generally noticed until they become 1 to 1 1/2 inches long. These young larvae do not consume the entire leaves of the food plant but skeletonize them, leaving the veins and ribs. This type of damage causes whitish areas to appear in lawns and grass fields where concentrated feeding of the worms occurs, Garner explains.

Fullgrown larvae are about 1 1/2 inches long and may be identified by the presence of a prominent white inverted Y on the front of the head, the entomologist continues. On the back there are three yellowish - white hair lines running from head to tail. On each side there is a wide, dark strip, and next to it is an equally wide, somewhat yellow, wavy strip tinted with red.

Several insecticides are available for controlling armyworms, but the Pure Food and Drug Administration prohibits the use of certain chemicals on small grains, forage and grasses. Garner strongly recommends contacting the local county agent before using any insecticide for control of these pests.

There are at present 23 calves on feed in the county for major shows next spring. They are doing exceptionally well.

4-H Club record books scored high in district judging. A large number of First place winners and alternates will be announced as soon as they are re-checked and an official notice is received from the District office.

For county competition 26 Junior and 9 senior record books were judged. Of this group, 16 junior and 8 senior books were entered in District competition.

This is by far the largest number of competed record books for Milam county. Milam 4-H'ers are to be highly commended for the excellent work as reflected by the outstanding records.

Hunters Should Respect Farm, Ranch Property When Hunting

COLLEGE STATION — Have you ever asked, and been refused permission to hunt on someone's farm or ranch? If you have, you probably could not understand why the landowner refused your request. Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, says that you were probably the victim of some earlier hunter's discourteous or irresponsible actions. You have a chance to prevent this same thing from happening to some other hunter, continues Cooper.

Landowner - sportsman relations need improving, and the next few months - the hunting seasons - are the best time to accomplish this. Cooper offers a few tips on hunting courtesy that will help you and the landowner become friends:

Ask permission to hunt on any land or water.
Respect property.
Obey the laws on bag limits, shooting seasons and shooting hours.
Inform the landowner when and where you will be hunting.
Do not invite friends to hunt with you unless the landowner has given permission.

Beat on mixer or by hand until smooth; add eggs and shortening and beat again until smooth. Add remaining flour, beating well with a spoon, to make a soft smooth dough. Brush top of dough with shortening or oil, cover, and let rise in a warm place for 30 minutes (do not allow dough to double in bulk). Punch down and shape rolls. Place in greased muffin pans or on a greased baking sheet and brush with melted shortening or oil. Let rise again for 30 minutes only. Bake in a slow oven (275 degrees) 18 to 20 minutes until cooked through but still white on the surface. Remove from pans to cool. Wrap securely and refrigerate or freeze until needed. To use, thaw if frozen, and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) 8 to 10 minutes until golden brown. Makes 2 to 2 1/2 dozen, depending on size.

West Trojans Defeat Yoemen, 26-18

Flying halfback Weldon Willig earned his bread for the West Trojans Friday night, as he scored all of four West touchdowns in edging out the Cameron Yoemen, 26-18 in the gridiron opener of the season.

Early scoring by both squad's a tremendous second half showing by the Yoemen and great broken field running highlighted the nights activities.

Weldon Willig went 80 yards, 10 yards and 1 yard for tallies and caught a 38 yard pass to round off his night's achievements.

Carol Fikes, Cameron half back had the time of his three year football career. He took the first play from scrimmage of the game for the Yoemen and ran 59 yards for a TD around left end.

He scored a few minutes later 36 yards off left tackle and then broke to the right in the best show of broken field running seen by Yoe fans in two years.

Big Ed Lierman came into his own, galloping 30 yards down the right side - line for a fourth period TD. Lierman was the outstanding defensive player for Cameron and the lone Yoemen that could handle Willig.

A shaky Yoe defence early in the game was excused when Yoemen tacklers avoided all would - be blockers in the second half and forced the Trojans to resort to passing.

Lierman made the defensive play of the night early in the second quarter throwing Willig for a 5 yard loss by carrying him on his shoulders behind the scrimmage line.

Ernest Bayer was used sparingly in the ball carrying department, although he garnered 37 yards in 9 tries. He was the hardest tackler, along with Big Bret Shumate and Eugene Schattle. Schattle played most of the game with a leg injury and did an outstanding job despite a bad limp.

Earl Morgan and Joe Harber were two new faces in the senior department that made Coach Billy Bates look up and smile. Harber took in a 34 yard pass in the last frame and showed good defensive form. Morgan garnered 8 yards for a first down on one carry and stopped Willig at the line of scrimmage and Plsek 10 yards out on his way to a potential TD.

When the Yoemen resorted to passing quarterbacks, Jimmy Woodum and Fikes both tossed for precious yards, completing 4 out of 11.

Ed Lierman led Cameron backs in yardage. He went 120 yards in 11 carries for a 10.9 average. Carroll Fikes averaged 16.2 yards per carry, in 114 yards. Bayer carried 3 times for 37 yards and Morgan went 6 yards in one carry. Willig trotted for a total of 90 yards in 20 carries averaging 4.5. Ernest Kaska was good for 78 yards and fullback Robert Plsek carried the pig skin 36 yards in four tries.

Bobby Hillman, David Barkemeyer, Chris Gay, Johnny Richter, and Stanley Kirk finished off the list of Yoe defensive standouts. Eugene Bajors and Donald Zatopek were in on most of the Trojans tackles.

Here is a play by play account of all the action in West Friday night.

First Quarter

Bertie Shumate carried the Trojan kickoff back to the Cameron 41 yardline. Carroll Fikes swept left end for a 59 yard touchdown. Jimmy Woodum's attempt to kick the extra point failed. Cameron leads, 6-0.

Weldon Willig received the Yoemen kickoff on his own 28 and went downfield, weaving in and out of Yoe tacklers and scoring 88 yards away. David Zatopek kicked for the extra point, placing West in the lead, 7-6.

Lierman returned the kickoff to his own 34 and then broke lose on the first play from scrimmage and went 30 yards. Fikes took the ball on the second play and broke off left tackle, only to cut back to the right in an unusual performance of broken running for a touchdown. Woodum missed with his pass, Cameron 12, West 7.

West covered the kickoff on their own 45. Willig picked up 8 around right end. Willig got 7 for a first, and then 15 for a first. Kaska jogged 13 yards off right tackle for another first down. Four more short gains gave the Trojans a first on the Cameron one yardline where Willig carried over the ball for yardage. He run for the PAT missed. West now leads 13-12.

Lierman carried the kickoff to downs and Fikes was forced to punt from the 45.

end the first quarter.

Second Quarter

Willig punted 35 yards out. Cameron took the ball on the 26. A fourth down punt was fumbled on the 33 where West took control of the ball.

Lierman threw Willig for a five yard loss. Whitley tossed a 38 yard pass to Willig for the third Trojans tally. Willig's attempted run fails, 18-12.

Cameron fumbled the ball on the first play from scrimmage with West recovering. A 32 yard drive brought West to the 10 yardline where Willig went over and scored. Zatopek kicked the extra point 2-12.

Cameron suffered a 5 yard penalty on the third play from scrimmage and Fikes tried his hand at passing the pigskin. Plsek intercepted on the 35.

Willig was hit hard by Bobby Hillman and thrown for a 10 yard loss. Willig punted out 45 yards to the 33 where Cameron lost the ball on downs as the first half ended.

Third Quarter

Willig carried the opening kickoff to the West 30 yardline. Kaska got 8 yards before Fikes brought him down. He garnered another 13 yards for a first down with Hillman getting the tackle. Willig got 9 and Kaska 5 for another first. Bayer getting the tackle Kaska got 3 and 3, and Willig 5 with Gay getting all three tackles. Willig got 4 and Plsek 7 for another first. Harber and Shumate getting the tackles.

Bayer stopped Kaska after a two yard gain. Lierman got Willig at 5, and Kirk hauled down Kaska just over the line of scrimmage. Willig fell two yards short of a first down. Cameron taking possession on the 3 yardline.

Bayer picked up 2 and 10 yards. Woodum got 2 on a keeper play. Fikes punted out 33 yards to the Cameron 43 where Willig got three yards. A five yard penalty gave West a first down on the next play as the 4th quarter began.

Fourth Quarter

Barkemeyer held Whitley to a one yard gain. Morgan stopped Kaska after 3, Willig got 4 with Gay getting the tackle and Morgan stopped Willig at the line of scrimmage.

Cameron took the ball on their own 20. Fikes picked up 10 yards as the Yoemen looked like a new team. Lierman, with a burst of speed picked up 9 yards, and Bayer got 2 for the first down. Bayer picked up 5 down the middle, being pulled up short by Bajors. Lierman broke lose again for 4 yards and a first down. Lierman got 5 with Altus making the tackle. The Yoe missed with two passes and Fikes picked up 7 for a first on the 30 yardline.

Lierman went around right end and rode the sideline for 30 yards and a touchdown. His attempt to run over the extra point fails.

The Yoemen recovered their own kickoff on the West 47 yardline, with Fikes covering. West quarterback, David Whitley blocked a Yoemen pass that just missed the outstretched hands of a Cameron receiver.

Kaska got 2 yards and Willig 6, Richter getting the tackle. Cameron recovered a West fumble. Lierman caught a Woodum pass good for 34 yards. Lierman picked up 8. A five yard penalty gave Cameron a first down. Cameron fumbled on the West 12 and West recovered.

Willig got 8 and 10 yards. Harber stopping him. Willig was stopped at the scrimmage and then got away a 50 yard punt.

Cameron took the ball on their 47 yardline with Fikes opening up by competing a 13 yard pass to end Roy Wohleb. Fikes hit Harber with a 35 yard pass taking the ball to the 22. Three incomplete passes and then two plays by West to run out the clock wrapped up the first game, final score was West 26, Yoemen 18.

Yoemen To Meet Rosebud Friday

The Cameron Yoemen will travel sixteen miles to neighboring Rosebud Friday night in search of their first football victory of the season. Last week they lost to West, 26 - 18.

Cameron will be the favorite in the game due to Marlin's 42 - 0 shelling of the Black Panthers last week.

Panther coach, J. Williams has six lettermen on his returning team, three of whom were last year's starters.

Cameron will field the same team that kept Yoe fans on the edge of their seats last week. Joe Harber could see more offensive action at end and Earl Morgan will be a new defensive face to watch.

If all goes well Eugene Schattie will be completely recovered from his leg injury and Stanley Krik will see more action at the guard spot.

Guard T. De Leon and Wayne Garrett will be the most feared Rosebud defenders.

Hearne Eagles Take Only Victory In 19AA Competition

The Hearne Eagles were the only 19AA team to cop with victory Friday night as they toppled Groesbeck, 42-8. Our local Yoemen were on the tail - end of a 26 - 18 count with West.

Giddings powerhoused their way over Rockdale and the Navasota Rattlers dropped the A & M Consolidated Tigers, 16 - 0.

Howard White, Hearne halfback, took charge of their ballgame late in the second quarter after Groesbeck scored from the six yard-line to rack up their only TD of the night.

White passed 25 yards for a TD and then scored on a 10 yard dash and a 30 yard run in the third period. He passed another 25 yards in the final frame for the fourth Eagle touchdown.

The Yoemen participated in one of the most thrilling games in Central Texas and probably the closest shave West will have this year in the victory department.

Ed Lierman and Carl Fikes matched wits with West's Weldon Willig and Ernest Kaska to put on a display of speed and broken field running that is seldom matched.

Rockdale relinquished an early lead to fall at the feet of the Giddings Buffaloes 20 - 7, he igers scored in the first quarter and kicked good the extra point before running out of gas.

Giddings came across with a touchdown in the second period and two in the 4th quarter.

Caldwell topped off the list of 19AA contenders. They lost to Madisonville in 25 - 0.

Sammie Markham Weds Wesley Walker

The First Methodist Church in Cameron was the scene of the Saturday evening wedding of Sammie Markham, daughter of Mrs. Florence Houston Markham and Mr. W. W. Markham of Cameron and Jack Wesley Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Walker of Graham.

Officiant for the 6:30 twilight ceremony was Rev. Aubrey F. Russell of Cameron.

Vows were repeated in a double-ring ceremony before an altar of entwined greenery featuring Comedor fern with satin and tulle bows. Three tiers of candelabra with cathedral tapers were accented by baskets of white albatross chrysanthemums.

Providing traditional wedding selections were Ladis Marek, Jr., organist, who also accompanied the soloist Miss Edith Baldrige of Dayton who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

L. W. Grayson, uncle of the bride, presented her in marriage. The bride wore a floor-length gown of Colonial design Chantilly lace over imported tulle, which extended into a short train. The gown featured a closely fitted bodice with satin buttons down the back and long lace sleeves ending in petal points. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion cascaded from a tiara of iridescent sequins, seed pearls, and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids encircled with white gardenias.

Newest Method Of Life Saving

BY VERN SANFORD

Newest and by far the best method of life saving - in case of drownings, heart attacks, shock or suffocation - is mouth to mouth resuscitation.

We've just seen a short film on the subject - which everyone in the state should view. It tells how, in a graphic way, to apply this greatly improved method of artificial respiration.

We can't explain it as clearly as the film portrays, but we'd like to relay this message to you until the time comes when you too can view the picture.

First step is to free the victim's mouth of any obstructions - food, if the victim is choking, water if drowning - then lay the person on his back, sit beside him, tilt the head far back, lift the chin high, grasp the nose to close it tightly, then take a deep breath (bring enough air into your own lungs to serve two persons), open the victim's mouth wide and force all the air you can from your lungs into his.

Then rest a second or two, take another deep breath, open the victim's mouth wide and again force all the air you can into his lungs.

Keep his nose closed all the time you are breathing into his lungs. Repeat the resuscitation procedure until you see the first signs of life returning.

If air gets into the victim's stomach, press gently on his stomach to force the air out.

Here's hoping that this film will be shown before every sportsmen's organization is Texas, in the youth camps, before every civic group, women's club, the boy scouts, girl scouts, schools, groups everywhere, including of course the Red Cross, Junior Red Cross and the military.

Many a life, lost from drowning, suffocation and the like, could have been saved had knowledge of this revival process been widely known.

There is one important fact about this method of revival - the only equipment needed to do the job is always with you. It's you.

The film, entitled "That They May Live", is available for any and all gatherings, free of charge, from the film library of the State Department of Health, 100 W. 49th Street, Austin, Texas. The telephone number is GL 3-6631. If you want to make an LD call, ask for the division of health education.

Whether you're an outdoorsman or an indoorsman for that matter, you need to view this film. You need to learn this method - for your own good and your family's good, if for no other reason.

While deaths by accidents outdoors - on lakes and streams and our hunting grounds - are many, fatal accidents in the home occur even more frequently. So, whoever you are, wherever you are, there is a good possibility that you or those dear to you may find this life saving method useful. We urge you to re-read, again and again, the simple procedure outlined above, learn the steps by heart so that you can perform them quickly. Then, if at all possible, see the film!

It was our good fortune to witness the showing at the recent Austin meeting of the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas. It received a tremendous ovation. Everyone agreed that it should be circulated throughout the length and breadth of Texas.

Regardless of your station in life, it is important that you have knowledge of the methods of performing artificial respiration. In fact, your own life may some day be in the hands of someone you taught how to do an efficient job of artificial respiration.

We repeat, at your first opportunity, see the film "That They May Live."

- Worrier's Guide -

By Jan Webster

Dear Jan: I may sound a little old fashioned - but my husband is helping - the girl next to us pass some of her math exams. He has been over at her house every night this week. Either she is mighty dumb or I am dumb for letting him out of my sight for a week. He goes over after supper and does not come home until real late. She is a slick chick of nineteen - 36-26-36. Should I trust that they are working math?

Wondering

Dear Wondering: I would brush up on my figures if I were you and put two and two together. If they want to work math suggest they do it in your living room.

Dear Jan: My husband goes on hunting trips every year and takes his secretary. It has puzzled me a great deal and I think it looks bad besides. I do not want to be the sort of wife that is always looking for trouble, but I can't see to the life of me just what a secretary could do on a hunting trip. Am I just over suspicious? Is this proper? If you were in my place what would you do?

Mrs. X

Dear Mrs. X: I would make hunting my favorite sport and go with him.

Dear Jan: My husband is the kind that thinks if his friends get something new he must have the same. Last year we bought a car that we could not pay for - this year he has bought a boat and an outboard motor that we will not be able to pay for. I had a fur coat almost snatched off my back in town once. I am getting so tired and embarrassed. Do you know anything that will stop him? I am willing to live like just people.

Broke and Embarrassed

Dear Broke: His creditors will stop him for you if he is turned in a few times. I am surprised that he has not lost his credit rating before now.

PM

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDonald entertained a group of friends and relatives with a barbecue dinner and all the trimmings Sunday.

Dinner-In-A-Dish

Nutritionally, dinner is usually the biggest meal of the day. But from the cook's point of view, it should be easy to prepare as well as good to eat. For quick and easy dinners, evaporated milk is a real gem-in-a-can. Always dependable, it can be stored on a pantry shelf with no fear of spoilage. Its smooth, blendable texture makes this Tuna-Fetti Casserole an immediate success. And it takes only thirty minutes to prepare.

Tuna-Fetti Casserole

2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna	1 can (1 pound) cut green beans
1 medium onion, sliced	1 1/2 cups packaged precooked rice
1 tablespoon flour	1 can (4 ounces) pimiento, diced
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup evaporated milk

Drain oil from tuna into 10-inch skillet. Add onion and cook until crisp tender. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Add evaporated milk and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Drain liquid from beans; reserve 1/2 cup. Add beans and tuna to skillet. Push mixture to sides of pan. ## Agriculture Sure Changing . . .

William Gaston, Milam-Burleson Area FFA manager, laid the facts on the table before a Cameron civic club last week.

He told Rotarians that Milam County has unlimited potential in new agricultural development, but that a tremendous effort will have to develop to equip Milam farmers with the modern techniques to meet changing farming conditions.

He assured his audience that dairy farming can produce far more net income for the small farmer than can cotton. He said livestock, both dairying and beef, can produce a good income to the small farmer if he applies the right techniques to the right land.

To be sure, farming has changed immeasurably in the past decade even as business conditions have changed. The two are inter-related in Cameron because of the influence of agriculture success on this county seat.

Frequently we hear of people coming into Milam County, buying land vacated by those who have tried the old ways, and we see the new owner prosper. The land is the same. The approach is different.

Sure, "Dad" did it the old, reliable way. But that was when that particular technique was the most reliable and productive. Most of the old methods have been improved upon. And those not adapting to the improvements are suffering deprivation in the pocket book.

None of this information is new. But it is the first time in some months that an agriculture spokesman has rammed the facts home with such effectiveness.

Why Not Relocate The Library?

The Cameron Independent School District has taken over the building once used by the Veterans Vocational School and still partially devoted to use as a city library.

Since the building will be used by the school and the present library facilities are inadequate, why not move the library and its books to a larger building?

There are buildings available that would serve the purpose more suitably and more conveniently than present arrangements.

A downtown library would be centrally located for the whole city. It would fill one of the vacant buildings.

Mr. K. Comes To The United Nations

Khrushchev is coming to the U. S. for an appearance at the United Nations. The Communist bloc of nations will be well represented as Hungary's No. 1 Communist will also head his delegation. And there is talk that Poland will send her president.

Point of the effort will be continuation of nuclear disarmament and banning of testing. And this follows the current, seemingly firm Russian policy.

Khrushchev's stand for nuclear bans and total disarmament has caused a rift between militant Chinese Communism and the Russian brand. Moscow has even called home Russian technicians and curtailed aid to Asiatic cousins.

Red China wants dynamic growth even to include shooting aggression if necessary. Her bombardment of the Quemoy - Matsu Islands two years ago evidenced this policy.

Khrushchev, an older and wiser Communist, wants the Cold War standoff. He is aware of the cancerous successes of the clandestine Communist order. He knows that Cuban and now Congolese eruptions open the way for highly skilled Communist minorities to grasp power where a vacuum occurs. It has succeeded in Cuba.

Congolese factions are using Russian trucks to haul troops to points of internal chaos. This suggests the possibility of a Communist grab if either native power faction fails to solidify control.

Shall the UN listen to the old lyrics of the Russian ballad — peace? President Eisenhower has already said he will not visit the UN unless he has something important to say, suggesting he might wish to rebuttle Khrushchev on this world stage.

The United States will be skeptical of this visit. Khrushchev, after all, not only maligned Eisenhower at the Summit, but insulted the American people and their president.

Khrushchev's move toward "responsible" consideration for world peace can mean only one thing: Russia is happy with a world condition that finds Cuba in the hands of Bolsheviks, the Congo in distress and the accompanying unrest throughout freedom-seeking, but incompetent new nations.

No Time For Any Squabbles

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — A family trying to get all slicked up to make a good impression on important company can't take time out for a domestic squabble.

On this premise, the Texas Industrial Commission, whose job is to lure new industry to Texas, voted to steer clear of political hassles and concentrate on putting the best foot forward.

Vote on this decision was 5 to 1. Voting no was Al H. Chesser, railroad brotherhood representative, who has urged the Commission to sponsor a legislative program including repeal of the state's "right to work" law.

"Our job is to sell Texas," said E. B. Germany, Commission chairman. He said he felt the Commission would be hampered in doing so if it got involved in controversial legislation.

Reviewing two years' progress, Germany reported that 475 new plants had located in Texas since the TIC was formed in March, 1958. Plans have been announced, he said, for 375 others in 99 counties and 492 plants have expanded in the past two years.

For the future, Walter Dickerson, TIC executive director, said 136 factory managements are considering a move to Texas. A number of these, he said, would make products for which Texans now send $2,500,000 out-of-state.

HANDS OFF HOUSTON

As a long believer of local control for local matters, Gov. Price Daniel said he would not intervene in affairs of the Houston Public School system.

For weeks Houston schools have been in a squeeze between a federal court order to begin gradual integration and a state law which says it will lose state if it does.

As a last resort, the Houston School Board asked Governor Daniel to "interpose" in its behalf. Under the theory of interposition, the state has, under the Tenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution, the right to interpose against any federal act by which it believes the federal government is exceeding its constitutional powers.

Daniel pointed out that this course had been tried without success in other states. Expressing confidence in the Houston board and its attorneys, Daniel said, "The Texas policy of local operation and control of public schools is far better than an attempted control by the governor or state."

TAX BITES UNCLE SAM

It was a sort of man-bites-dog story when the Attorney General's Department ruled the federal government would have to pay a $400,000 inheritance tax to Texas.

Clayton made a bequest to "the United States of America, to be used for the retirement of the national debt." Mrs. Clayton was the widow of the late Will Clayton of Anderson, Clayton & Co.

A federal attorney proposed keeping the money in a special account in Texas since bequests to Texas and its citizens are exempt from the inheritance tax.

But the AG ruling said other states would benefit just as much as Texans from national debt retirement. In effect, the federal treasury will have to take the bitter with the sweet.

Car Inspection Period For '61 Set For Sept. - April

The Texas Public Safety Commission has designated September 1 as the beginning of the 1961 Motor Vehicle Inspection period in Texas. The period ends on April 15, 1961.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that 4,700 inspection stations were ready on Thursday, September 1 to attach the new 1961 inspection stickers to the windshield of more than four and one-half million vehicles coming under the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Act. All such vehicles must display the new sticker on April 16, 1961.

Garrison said, "We feel that the vehicle inspection program in Texas has proved a deterrent to vehicle accidents on our streets and highways." He urged all motorists to get their vehicles inspected before the bad weather of winter begins.

"It takes just a few minutes to have a vehicle safety checked," Garrison said. "Yet those few minutes thus spent today could mean the saving of someone's life tomorrow."

Garrison noted that the per cent of accidents in which vehicle defects were causative factors has been cut approximately in half since the program was started in Texas.

The fee for each inspection is $1.00 plus any repair or adjustment necessary. The average cost for inspection in 1960, including the $1.00 fee, was $2.00 per vehicle.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Washington, In Its Rush Into Space, Hasn't Forgotten The Earth

Dear editor:

You can hardly pick up a newspaper these days without reading something about who's winning the race for space, and I guess it's important, we have to race in self defense, but nobody has convinced me that life in space after we conquer it is going to be any better than life here on this Johnson-grass farm, and consequently I was amazed to read an article last night that proves Washington hasn't abandoned the earth altogether.

According to it, the government has now set up an experimental plant to convert sea water into drinking water, and any water good enough to drink is good enough to irrigate with, and you can see what this could lead to.

You give me all the water my crops want, at the time they want it, and you can have the moon all its canals, even if they're filled with running water. Plenty of moisture and a good farm program which both candidates are promising, is all any farmer could ask.

Of course, us farmers don't want to get the notion that by next year there'll be a pipeline running by our farms with a hydrant ready to turn on, but the fact Washington has made a start is something to dream about. After all, you've got to remember that while billions of dollars are being spent on space exploration with thousands of men at work at it, this new water plant will cost one and a quarter million dollars and will employ exactly 10 men. You can't go hog-wild over improving this earth while the backside of the moon is still un-touched.

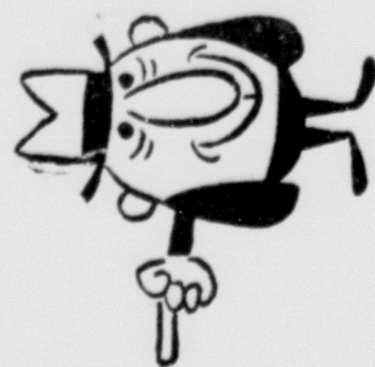

However, I'm not complaining about this. Everything should be in the right proportions, and everybody knows outer space is more important than this earth, but at least they've made a start.

Who knows, if we've made a start toward using all that wasted salty sea water for the benefit of man, some day you may pick up a newspaper and find out we've started work too on eradicating mosquitoes, house flies, chiggers and dented fingers, and are working steadily toward salt shakers that don't clog up in damp weather and children's shoes that last longer than three months.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

You pay 90¢ tax on 10 gallons of gasoline

Gasoline taxes up 51% in ten years

Federal tax to 4 cents a gallon; in addition to the State tax of 5 cents a gallon.

Looking at it another way, in the last ten years gasoline taxes have skyrocketed 51%—yet the price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period.

$78 a year for gasoline taxes! Gallon by gallon, these taxes add up to a lot of money. Each year the average motor vehicle owner in this state pays $78 for gasoline taxes alone. That's just a few dollars less than the average week's pay for most people!

Everywhere in Texas, car owners pay 90¢ tax on every 10 gallons of gasoline they buy.

Does a tax this high—on a basic commodity like gasoline—really make sense? Gasoline taxes across the nation amount to a 50% sales tax—and that's five times as high as the tax rate on luxuries like diamonds and mink coats.

How did gasoline taxes get so high? Well, since World War II, there have been three increases in the federal gasoline tax alone. This brought the federal tax to 4 cents a gallon; in addition to the State

Your gasoline dealer—who must collect these taxes from you—feels that gasoline taxes are much too high. More and more, thinking people are coming to agree. What do you think?

HIGHWAYS AND GASOLINE TAXES

Your gasoline retailer, naturally, favors construction of the roads that the motoring public needs. He believes in fair and reasonable taxation for this purpose but feels that taxes on gasoline have now reached unreasonable high levels. He also believes that all special taxes on the motorist should be used only for highway purposes. Yet last year, out of every automobile tax dollar collected by the Federal Government from highway users, more than 40 cents went for non-highway purposes. If these automotive tax revenues were dedicated for highway purposes, there would be no need for the latest increase in the federal gasoline tax.
